GEORGIA FRONTIERE

CHAIRMAN/OWNER

Georgia Frontiere is one of the National Football League's most respected executives and the First Lady of Sports in St. Louis. Georgia is in her 25th season as chairman and owner of the St. Louis Rams, one of the NFL's most popular teams, a high-scoring powerhouse that is favored by football fans throughout the world. The Rams are one of the NFL's most successful teams and their traditional Rams horns rank as one of the most popular brands in the sports and entertainment industries.

Georgia has shared the NFL football experience since 1958, when she met her late husband, Carroll Rosenbloom, who was owner of the Baltimore Colts before he became owner of the Rams in 1972. She assumed leadership of the Rams in 1979, a season in which the team overcame numerous injuries and setbacks to win the NFC Championship and advance to Super Bowl XIV. During Georgia's tenure, the Rams have made 11 playoff appearances, won four division championships, three NFC Championships, and made three Super Bowl appearances, highlighted by the Super Bowl XXXIV victory over the Tennessee Titans.

The Rams and St. Louis have forged a special bond since Georgia relocated the team to the Gateway City in 1995. St. Louis is her hometown and the Rams' success on the field and in the community has created a unique partnership.

She has long been recognized for her philanthropic work and is a leading contributor to the St. Louis community, assisting a wide variety of groups with an emphasis on youth, education and the arts. The St. Louis Rams Foundation was formed in 1997 and has supported charities in the bi-state region and has also been instrumental in creating innovative programs for children in the community. Since the team relocated to St. Louis, the organization has distributed more than 2.5 million dollars in cash and merchandise to area causes.

Frontiere's dedication to the advancement of youth is further underscored by her commitment of more than $1,000,000 to The Fulfillment Fund, an organization which sponsors more than 2,000 high school students who are selected for having college potential, but whose financial opportunities are limited. In 1992, she initiated a contest that annually awards a $5,000 scholarship to a student who creates the winning illustration for the cover of the Rams' media guide.

Georgia is on the Executive Committee of the St. Louis Variety Club, serving on and contributing her time and singing talent to the Club's annual telethon. She plays a principal part in the "Bikes For Kids" program, which annually provides bicycles for children of low-income families. This year, she hosted more than 300 youngsters at Rams Park where the children received their bicycles and invitations to attend a Rams' game.

The American Heart Association honored Georgia, along with veteran news reporter Walter Cronkite, with the Missourian Award. This prestigious award is presented to Missouri native sons and daughters who have made outstanding contributions in business, civic activities, or the arts. For her St. Louis civic and charitable accomplishments, the St. Louis Ambassadors have named Georgia "Sportsperson of the Year." As a board member of the St. Louis Symphony, she has helped build alliances between sports and cultural arts in St. Louis. Georgia is also on the board of directors of the St. Louis' Herbert Hoover Boys and Girls Club, the St. Louis Zoo, and the Los Angeles Orphanage Guild. Georgia was named the "First Lady of Old Newsboys' Day" and was inducted into the Newsboys' Hall of Fame.

Georgia holds a Doctor of Philanthropy degree from Pepperdine

University in Malibu, CA and is on the Board of Governors of Chapman College in Orange, CA. The Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council recently presented Georgia with a special award to show their appreciation as the council's founder. This organization provides bulletproof vests, canine units, vehicles and other essential equipment to law enforcement. She also started Project 999, which has raised close to $1,000,000 to provide financial support for officers injured or fallen in the line of duty and their families. Georgia is also the recipient of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, which cited her for "community involvement and for having greatly contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values of our ancestors."

Under Georgia's leadership, the Rams have annually supported the United Way. Georgia appeared in a United Way public service announcement in 1997 and she helped orchestrate the 25th anniversary of the NFL/United Way Partnership with a series of local activities in 1998. She is a member of the Alexis de Tocqueville Society for her contributions to the United Way and serves on the United Way Board of Directors.

Frontiere also provided support and representation for the so-called "Pre-59ers," those 1,000 or so players who left the playing field before 1959 and thus did not qualify for the NFL's retirement plan. Georgia started a "Dire Need Fund" for the Los Angeles Chapter of the NFL Alumni Association. This led to the creation of a league-wide NFL Alumni Dire Need Fund for all retired players. Georgia often plays in the NFL Alumni Golf Tournaments. This year, she was the honorary chairperson for the St. Louis Chapter's NFL Alumni Tournament.

She is a board member of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America, and a national board member of the American Foundation for AIDS Research, and occupies a similar position with the St. John's Ambulance Brigade of Great Britain, which provides free ambulance and emergency services throughout the United Kingdom.

Having grown up during World War II, she never forgot the young Americans who lost their lives fighting side by side with Great Britain's Royal Air Force. She realized another dream with the construction of a gallery in the American Air Museum in Duxford, England, where more than 30,000 names are permanently etched on the walls of the Georgia Frontiere Gallery in the museum. Singing in concerts throughout America and England, she joined with actors James Stewart and Charlton Heston to help raise funds to make the American Air Museum a reality. The museum, which houses many airplanes used in World War II, commemorates the American Airmen who fought in the air war over Europe in the cause of freedom. The opening in 1997 was dedicated by Queen Elizabeth and attended by Prince Philip, Prince Andrew, and her co-chairman Charlton Heston. She chaired the rededication of the Air Museum in September in 2002 with former President George Bush and Prince Charles.

Georgia is an accomplished soprano, having recently joined Bill Hayes and Richard Fredricks for an "Evening with Lerner and Lowe" with the St. Louis Symphony. She has performed several concerts with the Beverly Hills Pops Orchestra, and was twice a featured soloist at the Easter Sunrise Services at the Hollywood Bowl. Her love for music and opera influenced her to become a member of the Golden Horseshoe of the New York Metropolitan Opera, and she is a member of the Founders of The Los Angeles Music Center Opera board.

Georgia is the mother of two children, son Dale Carroll Rosenbloom, who is married to the former Kathleen Melville, and daughter Lucia Pamela Rodriguez, who is married to Lupe Rodriquez. She has six grandchildren.

Georgia Frontiere has guided the organization to nine seasons of 10 or more victories, four division titles, three NFC Championships, and one Super Bowl title.

E. STANLEY KROENKE

VICE CHAIRMAN/OWNER

An avid sportsman a native Missourian, Kroenke's emergence as a member of Rams ownership was critical in the effort to return professional football to St. Louis and whose expertise was instrumental in the creation of Rams Park, the premier NFL training facility.

Completed in June, 1996, Rams Park has been a model for other NFL training sites, sitting on 20 acres in St. Louis County and conveniently located minutes from the Lambert Field Airport. The Park includes three natural grass, outdoor practice fields, an indoor practice facility, and 90,000 square feet for football operations and administration.

In addition, Kroenke is owner of the Denver Nuggets National Basketball Association team and the Colorado Avalanche National Hockey League team, which he purchased in 2000. In his first year of ownership, the Avalanche won the Stanley Cup. Stan's extensive business interests include his serving as chairman and owner of The Kroenke Group, a private real estate investment and development company with offices throughout the United States and headquarters in Columbia, Missouri. During the past three decades, Kroenke has earned a reputation as one of the nation's leading developers of shopping centers and apartment buildings. Kroenke's current and former board and trustee memberships include Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., Central Bank Holding Company, Boone County National Bank in Columbia, Community Investments Partnership of St. Louis, the College of the Ozarks, and the Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame. Stan also has active membership in St. Louis's Civic Progress, which provides support and leadership for various community improvements that address economic development, education, and quality of life.

Kroenke has undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and is an active supporter of Mizzou athletic programs, including the Dan Devine Club, named for the former Tigers football coach. E. Stanley Kroenke, named after baseball legends Enos Slaughter and Stan Musial, was born in Cole Camp, Missouri, and grew up in Mora, Missouri. Stan and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh, and reside in Columbia.

JOHN SHAW

President

Year in NFL: 24
Year with Rams: 24

Understated, but never underspoken, John Shaw has been a significant component of the Rams success and continued evolvement of the National Football League for three decades.

Shaw, who joined the Rams in 1980, directs all aspects of the Rams operation, and has been involved in many critical decisions involving the Rams and the NFL for more than 20 years. On April 15, 1999, Shaw and Jay Zygmunt, Rams President of Football Operations, negotiated a successful trade with the Indianapolis Colts for running back Marshall Faulk. The Rams sent 1999 second- and fifth-round draft choices to the Colts for Faulk, who has cemented his status as a first ballot Hall of Fame player as the Rams became the NFL's most exciting team over the past four seasons. Since coming to St. Louis, Faulk has been the league's NFL Most Valuable Player (2000), and the league's offensive player of the year three consecutive years (1999-2001).

Shaw, as Rams President, also was the principal figure in negotiating the return of professional football to St. Louis in 1995 and has been an active participant in shaping the future of the NFL as a member of the league's Management Council Executive Committee. John was a significant contributor to the enactment of a Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players' Association that brought labor peace to the NFL in 1993.

A native of Brooklyn, New York, Shaw moved to San Diego as a youngster, attended high school there, and graduated as class valedictorian from the University of San Diego with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He continued his education at New York University School of Law, from which he received a Juris Doctor Degree, and is a member of the California Bar. John is married (Lori) and has a daughter, Alexx.

JAY ZYGMUNT

President, Football Operations

Year in NFL: 22
Year with Rams: 22

Zygmunt, named President of Football Operations on February 4, 2000, is responsible for all phases of Rams football, including the management of the NFL salary cap. In 2001, Jay was runner-up to Pittsburgh Steelers owner Art Rooney as the NFL's Executive of the Year in balloting among NFL owners and executives conducted by The Sporting News. That year, Zygmunt directed one of the most dramatic offseasons in Rams history, when he engineered trades that brought the Rams all-Pro cornerback Aeneas Williams and two additional first-round draft choices. The Rams opened the 2001 season with eight new defensive starters and a new coaching staff on defense and ended the year with a NFC Championship and a return to the Super Bowl. This past March, Zygmunt helped engineer a trade to acquire all-Pro right tackle Kyle Turley.

The date of April 15, 1999, will be noted for one of the most significant trades in team history, and perhaps NFL history as well. Jay and team President John Shaw acquired perennial Pro Bowl running back Marshall Faulk from the Indianapolis Colts in exchange for second and fifth round draft choices. Since that historic trade, the Rams have won 44 games, tied for the most victories in the NFL over that time.

Zygmunt is one of the NFL most respected football veterans. He has principally been involved in the signing of 22 Ram first round draft choices, as well as scores of unrestricted free agents since joining the organization in 1982 as General Counsel. Jay was the teams' Executive Vice President from 1996-1999.

A native of Chicago, Zygmunt graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and is a member of the Sorin Society. Jay earned his Juris Doctor degree from the Northwestern University School of Law where he has been recognized as a distinguished alumnus and is a member of the Wigmore Club.

Zygmunt is a member of the Illinois Bar and also is a Certified Public Accountant. He is a member of the Sports Lawyers Association and the American Bar Association's Forum Committee on Entertainment and Sports Industries. Jay was the chairman of this year's Multiple Sclerosis Sports Celebrity Dinner.

When time permits, Jay enjoys deep-sea fishing and golf. In 2001, Zygmunt landed a 600-pound blue marlin off Cabo San Lucas in Baja California. The event was special in more than one way. Watching was Joe Zygmunt, Jay's 80–plus year-old father and fishing partner. Jay resides in Clayton, Missouri.

Charley Armey

General Manager

Year in NFL: 24
Year with Rams: 7

An NFL veteran of nearly a quarter century, Armey, oversees the Rams' college and pro personnel departments, among other responsibilities. Armey, who joined the Rams following the 1997 NFL Draft, had spent the previous seven seasons (1991-97) with the New England Patriots as Assistant Director of Player Operations, negotiating with and signing drafted players and free agents. He also held the title of Director of College Scouting with New England.

Armey was a scout for the Atlanta Falcons from 1988-90 and a scout for the Green Bay Packers from 1985-87. He served the Denver Gold, Memphis Showboats, and Chicago Blitz of the USFL as an assistant coach, director of scouting, and as assistant general manager from 1983-85. He was the Gold's head coach for one game in 1983 and was a scout for the Buffalo Bills from 1978-82.

Charley began his career as linebackers coach at North Dakota State in 1968, was head coach and athletic director at Montana Tech from 1969-70, defensive coordinator at Montana, 1971-73, and assistant head coach and offensive and defensive coordinator at Colorado State from 1973-78.

Armey, a four-year veteran of the U.S. Navy, holds a bachelor's degree from Valley City State in North Dakota and a master's degree from North Dakota State. Armey enjoys classical music and reading, and authored a book, Winning Football with the 4-3 Defense. Charley and his wife, Audrey, reside in Lake St. Louis, Missouri, and have two daughters, Lisa and Kellie, and two grandsons, Travis and Tristam.

Bob Wallace

Executive Vice President and General Counsel

Year in NFL: 23
Year with Rams: 9

A long-time NFL veteran, Wallace oversees the day-to-day business operation of the Rams, including departmental supervision and planning.

Wallace, who lettered in football as a running back at Yale University, got his first taste of the NFL in St. Louis as a teenage training camp assistant with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1971. He later served the football Cardinals as the legal Counsel and was the team's chief contract negotiator while representing the St. Louis law firm of Guilfoil, Petzall and Shoemake from 1981-91.

Wallace was one of the first African Americans to negotiate player contracts. He currently is one of the NFL's highest ranking minority club executives.

Wallace was Assistant to the President, General Counsel, and chief contract negotiator for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1991-94. He returned to St. Louis when the Rams moved here in 1995. A native of New York City, Wallace was a legal intern on the late NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff. Upon graduation from Yale, Bob earned his law degree from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C.

Bob is President of Giant Steps of St. Louis, a school for autistic children and is Secretary/Treasurer of the St. Louis Sports Commission. Wallace was chosen to the board of directors of Allegiant Bank and serves on a number of area boards, including Webster University, Circus Flora, and the United Way. Bob is a member of the Sports and Entertainment Division of the American Bar Association, and is on the board of the Sports Lawyers' Association. He has been an instructor in sports law at St. Louis University School of Law and received a certificate of recognition for law and education projects from the St. Louis Public Schools.

Bob, who is married to Julie and lives in St. Louis, is an avid sportsman and especially enjoys basketball, racquetball, and golf. He has two sons, Grant, 10, and Eric, nine.

MIKE MARTZ

Head Coach

Year in NFL: 12
Year with Rams: 10

In his short tenure as offensive coordinator and head coach, Mike Martz has transformed the St. Louis Rams into one of the most dominant teams and explosive units in National Football League history.

Chairman Georgia Frontiere appointed Martz as the 21st head coach in franchise history on February 2, 2002. Entering his fourth season as head coach, he is the longest tenured head coach in St. Louis Rams history, and becomes the longest tenured head coach in over a decade, when John Robinson led the franchise for nine seasons from 1983-91.

Martz' 33 wins in his first three seasons are third highest in franchise history, trailing only legendary coaches Chuck Knox (36), and Ray Malavasi (35), and ahead of Robinson (32), and George Allen (29). Martz, who joined the Rams in 1992 as an unpaid assistant coach, began to earn acclaim in 1995 when-second year wideout Isaac Bruce set franchise records in receptions (119) and receiving yards (1,781). Martz had a two-year coaching stint with the Washington Redskins (1997-98), but since returning to St. Louis, the Rams, and the NFL were changed forever.

As offensive coordinator, Martz coordinated a remarkable turnaround when he took over the Rams' offense for the first time in the 1999 Super Bowl XXXIV-championship season. Guiding former Arena League quarterback Kurt Warner and exploiting the running-receiving talents of Marshall Faulk, Martz's offense averaged 401 yards a game, compared to 280 the season before, and scored 526 points, 285 more than in 1998. Only two teams had ever scored more points. The Rams were only the fourth team since the start of the 16-game schedule in 1978 and sixth since 1950 to outscore their opponents by at least 250 points. The Rams' margin of 17.8 points a game more than opponents was third highest in the NFL since 1950.

But that was just the beginning:
In fact, since 1999, the Rams' 44 regular season wins are tied for the most in the NFL over that span. In addition, Martz's 24 wins in his first two seasons is the third highest in NFL history.

•The Rams led the NFL in offense from 1999-2001, producing back-to-back-to-back NFL Most Valuable Players: Kurt Warner in 1999, Marshall Faulk in 2000, and Warner in 2001. It was the first time in league history one NFL team had the outright winner of the MVP award three consecutive seasons.

•Since 1999, the Rams have averaged 32.6 points a game and 420 yards total offense.

•In 2001, the Rams became the first team to score at least 500 points in three consecutive seasons.

•Over the past four seasons, the Rams have broken 16 NFL offensive records, and tied four others. In addition, the Rams have set a whopping 75 team records, and tied 30 others.

In 2000, the engine that is the Rams' offense motored to a franchise-best 540 points and averaged 442 yards a game, despite injuries that sidelined Warner for five games and Faulk for two.

Not a one-dimensional coach, Martz addressed a critical defensive overhaul before the 2001 season. Beginning with the NFL free agency period in February, the Rams signed or traded for several significant defensive players, then surprised the football community by selecting defensive players with their five choices in the first three rounds of the 2001 NFL draft.

The Rams, under Martz' new defensive coordinator Lovie Smith, improved from 23rd to third in total defense and from 31st to sixth in points allowed. The Rams allowed 273 points in 2001, compared to 471 in 2000. The 198-point swing is the second highest in NFL history, bettered only by the Washington Redskins in 1955. Last season, the Rams' defense finished tied for fourth in the NFC and tied for fifth in the NFL in fewest touchdowns allowed with 30.

Martz's philosophy is not complex: "This is a game of speed and attitude," he says. Offensively, Martz does not try to fit players to a system. Rather, he fits a system to the players. Mike began preparing for this coaching opportunity at San Diego's Madison High in the 1960s. He spent many Saturday nights at San Diego Stadium watching Coryell's San Diego State offensive powerhouses and Sunday afternoons watching Gillman's offensively creative San Diego Chargers.

Martz is a summa cum laude graduate of Fresno State, where he played tight end in 1972. He was a tight end at the University of California-Santa Barbara in 1971 and transferred to Fresno when UCSB dropped football. Martz also played two seasons at San Diego Mesa Community College.

Mike's first coaching appointment was at Bullard High in Fresno, California, in 1973. He also coached at San Diego Mesa (1974, 1976-77), San Jose State (1975), Santa Ana College in Santa Ana, California (1978), Fresno State (1979), University of the Pacific (1980-81), and Minnesota (1982). He was quarterbacks and receivers coach at Arizona State from 1983-87 and was the Sun Devils' offensive coordinator in 1984 and from 1988-91.

But Martz is more than just a football coach. This past offseason, Martz addressed St. Louis school superintendents on leadership and character, spoke to the Missouri House of Representatives, and gave a passionate testimony before a United States Senate committee, urging increased federal funding for Alzheimer's research (Martz' late mother Betty suffered from the disease).

For the second consecutive year, Martz hosted a high school football coaches clinic, the only team-sponsored high school coaching clinic in the National Football League, which had over 700 attendees. Martz also was host for his third annual golf tournament, which raises funds for Alzheimer's research and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Martz was born in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and moved to San Diego at age eight. Martz and his wife Julie have three sons, Chris, David, and Tim, and a daughter, Emily. The Martzes reside in Wildwood, Missouri.

MARTZ MAKES HIS MARK IN THE ST. LOUIS COMMUNITY

While much is known about St. Louis Rams' Head Coach Mike Martz's involvement on the football field, his numerous charitable efforts are not as well known. This off-season, he has been active in causes ranging from Alzheimer's research and funding to hosting a coaching clinic for more than 700 high school football coaches from Missouri and Illinois.

Coach Martz's busy off-season began in February at the St. Louis Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society Celebrity Sports Dinner. His involvement helped raise more than $300,000 for research to fight the disease.

On March 5, Coach Martz was presented the Staples Coach of the Week Award at Windsor High School for his team's 28-13 victory over the Oakland Raiders on October 13. He spoke at an assembly at the school about how he became a head coach, and stressed the importance of staying in school. While Staples presented the school with a $5,000 gift certificate to purchase school supplies, Coach Martz added his own donation of $10,000 creating a total of $15,000.

Less than one week later, Coach Martz invited St. Louis area superintendents and district leaders in character education to a meeting held at Rams Park, the Rams' training facility.

In addition, Martz was asked to speak to the Missouri State House of Representatives in Jefferson City, Missouri, as they were facing problems balancing the state budget. While he declined to speak on solving the complex budget issue, he addressed the Rams' philosophy and high standard of excellence the team strives for on the field, and out of the box thinking.

Later that week, Coach Martz was back in St. Louis hosting a coaching clinic for more than 700 coaches from Missouri and Illinois. The two-day Mike Martz High School Coaching Clinic addressed numerous aspects of the game and helped to prepare high school coaches for their season next fall.

The month of April began with Coach Martz once again speaking to a legislative body, only this time he addressed the United States Senate sub-committee. He was joined by Terrell Owens of the San Francisco 49ers and those suffering or affected by Alzheimer's as the Senate subcommittee listened to testimony regarding additional funding for the disease. Martz gave an emotional testimony on how the disease affected his mother, who died in 1997. Following the hearing, Martz visited with Missouri Senators Jim Talent and Kit Bond, urging their support for additional Alzheimer's funding.

On June 6, he hosted the Third Annual Allegiant Bank Mike Martz Celebrity Golf Classic, and in July, he was named the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame's Most Pro-Active Coach.

While his team is exciting on the field, Mike Martz's commitment to the community makes him a success off the field as well. His involvement spans many areas and his desire to help is undeniable. Whether it is schools, state delegates, high school coaches or those afflicted with disease, Martz's presence is felt.

JIM HANIFAN

Offensive Line

College: California
Year in NFL: 31
Year with Rams: 7
Birthdate: 9/21/33

Arguably the finest offensive line coach in the history of professional football, Hanifan came to St. Louis for the third time in 1997, taking over a young, developing group that emerged as a vital component in the Rams' Super Bowl and playoff runs from 1999-2001.

The group is poised for another playoff run with the free agency signing of veteran C Dave Wohlabaugh and the acquisition of RT Kyle Turley, who will team with four-time Pro Bowl LT Orlando Pace and two-time Pro Bowl guard Adam Timmerman.

Hanifan, teaming since 1999 with John Matsko, who also tutors offensive linemen, first served the football Cardinals as offensive line coach from 1973-78. Hanifan's unit allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL in five consecutive seasons, beginning in 1974. In 1975, the Cardinals' eight sacks allowed represented the second-lowest total in NFL history. Hanifan was NFL Assistant Coach of the Year as selected by coaches in 1977.

Following a one-year tenure as assistant head coach/offensive line with the San Diego Chargers (1979), Hanifan returned to St. Louis as head coach (1980-85), posting winning seasons from 1982-84. Jim was the Atlanta Falcons' offensive line coach for three years (1987-89) before moving to the Washington Redskins (1990-96). Washington won Super Bowl XXVI following the 1991 season, and the offensive line allowed only nine sacks in the Redskins' 17-2 season.

Hanifan's long, storied coaching career began with a position as assistant coach at Yuba City Junior College (1959-61). He was head coach at Charter Oak High in Covina, Ca. (1962-63). Hanifan coached at Glendale Junior College (1964-65) and at the University of Utah (1966-69). Jim coordinated the passing game at his alma mater, California, in 1970-71. He moved to San Diego State (1972) as offensive line coach.

Hanifan was an all-America end at California, leading the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 569 yards and seven touchdowns in 1954. Jim played one season with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League in 1955. Jim and his wife Mariana have a daughter, Kathleen and son James. The Hanifans reside in St. Charles, Missouri.

RAMS' OPPONENTS THROUGH 2009

The NFL's new scheduling format includes the following elements:

- There will be an increased common-opponent emphasis with every team in a division playing against 14 common opponents.
- All teams will play each other on a regular basis, home and away, for a more consistent presentation of attractive games, eliminating the many schedule aberrations of the past.
- Teams are guaranteed to play all non-division opponents in their conference at least once every three years, and at home at least once every six years.
- Every AFC team will play every NFC team once every four years, and at home once every eight years.
- A team's record from the previous year will have less of a bearing on its schedule, with only two (rather than four) opponents being based on the previous year's standing. Thus, the so-called "easy" fifth-place schedules are eliminated.
- The division in which a team resides will be less of a factor in a team's won-loss record with 10 of 16 games each year being against non-division teams.

Under the new scheduling formula, every team within a division will play 16 games as follows:

- Home and away against its three division opponents (6 games).
- The four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (4 games).
- The four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (4 games).
- Two intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (2 games). These games will match a first-place team against the first-place teams in the two same-conference divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place, and fourth-place teams in a conference will be matched in the same way each year.

Rams
2002 SEASON

2002 SEASON GAME SUMMARIES

Game 1 — Denver Broncos 23, RAMS 16

INVESCO Field at Mile High | September 8, 2002 | Mostly Cloudy, 83 degrees

The Rams lost their first season opener since 1998 and only their second opener since 1993 in Kickoff Weekend 2002 23-16 to the Denver Broncos. RB Marshall Faulk gained 110 total yards (19 rushing, 91 receiving), moving him into ninth on the NFL's list of total yards from scrimmage (14,999), passing Ricky Watters (14,891). Faulk also scored his 60th touchdown as a Ram. QB Kurt Warner completed 31 of 42 passes for 315 yards, his 27th career 300-plus-yard passing game. The Broncos got on the board first after a 13-play, 97-yard drive culminating in a seven-yard strike from QB Brian Griese to WR Rod Smith to give the Broncos a 7-0 lead. The Broncos put up the next points as well, as K Jason Elam connected on a 41-yard field goal on the fourth play of the second quarter. The Rams put together a 11-play, 46-yard drive that helped them put their first points up on a 41-yard field goal by K Jeff Wilkins. More than five minutes later, Denver regained their 10-point lead when Elam booted a 34-yard field goal. Denver extended their lead on the ensuing kickoff when Rams kickoff returner RB Lamar Gordon fumbled the ball, Broncos RB KaRon Coleman recovered it, and three plays later, Elam kicked a 32-yard field goal to give Denver a 16-3 lead. St. Louis ended the first half with another field goal by Wilkins, this time from 43 yards out, to end the first half down by a tally of 16-6. The Rams came out strong after halftime, as on the first play of the second half CB Aeneas Williams intercepted a Griese pass, returning it three yards to the Denver 26-yard line. Three plays later the Rams got the ball in the end zone for the first time as Faulk ran up the middle for three yards, closing the Denver lead to 16-13. Rams' LB Don Davis picked off another Griese pass less than three minutes later, his first career interception, and returned it 29 yards to the Denver 48-yard line. Wilkins missed a 39-yard field goal with 10:07 left in the fourth quarter to tie the game and Denver took advantage four minutes later when Griese connected with WR Ed McCaffrey for a 23-yard touchdown pass. St. Louis closed the scoring as Wilkins hit a 39-yard field goal for the final margin.

Game 2 — New York Giants 26, RAMS 21

Edward Jones Dome | September 15, 2002 | Indoors, 72 degrees

The Rams lost their second consecutive game to start the season 0-2 for the first time since 1998 as the New York Giants spoiled the Rams home opener, 26-21. RB Marshall Faulk became the ninth player in NFL history with 15,000 yards from scrimmage in his career in the first quarter, and moved into sole position of third place on the Rams career list of consecutive games with a touchdown with eight, breaking a tie with Johnny (Zero) Drake (1939) and Wendell Tyler (1982-83). Faulk also scored his 112th and 113th career touchdowns in the game, tying Hall of Famer Lenny Moore for eighth on the NFL's all-time touchdown list. The Giants got on the board three times before the Rams could score - K Matt Bryant kicked a 20-yard field goal in the first quarter. In the second quarter QB Kerry Collins threw a 28-yard scoring strike to TE Jeremy Shockey with 10:36 left in the first half, after an 8-play, 75-yard drive to make the score 10-0. CB Jason Sehorn returned an interception 31 yards for a touchdown, coming two plays later to increase the Giants lead to 17-0 with 9:44 left in the second quarter. The Rams scored on a 6-yard pass from QB Kurt Warner to WR Ricky Proehl to make the score 17-7. The touchdown pass was Warner's 99th of his career. The Rams broke out of the gates at halftime to score another touchdown, as Faulk ran one yard for the score, a touchdown that was set up three plays earlier by his own 44-yard run. New York then scored twice to end the third quarter and begin the fourth quarter, both times on field goals by Bryant, the first a 32-yarder, and the second a 34-yarder to make the score 23-14. The Rams narrowed their deficit to 23-21 on an 8-yard run by Faulk on a play where he looked to be tied up after one yard, and found his way to the end zone around the trenches. The Giants closed out the scoring with another field goal by Bryant, a 25-yarder, for the final margin.

Game 3 Tampa Bay Buccaneers 26, RAMS 14

Raymond James Stadium | September 23, 2002 | Cloudy, 79 degrees

The Rams lost their third consecutive game to start the season 0-3 for the first time since 1987, and in a non-strike season, since 1963. QB Kurt Warner recorded his 1,000th career completion after a 16-yard pass to WR Torry Holt in the first quarter making him the fastest player in NFL history to reach the milestone. Warner also recorded 1,500 career pass attempts, qualifying him for the NFL's career passing stats list. He entered the list with a 100.2 rating and is the third quarterback to enter the Leading Lifetime Passers Top 20 list at number one, following Joe Montana (1983), and Dan Marino (1986). RB Marshall Faulk scored his 114th career touchdown, and is now in sole possession of eighth place on the NFL's career list of touchdowns, breaking a tie with Hall of Famer Lenny Moore. WR Torry Holt became the ninth player in team history to record 4,000 receiving yards in his career. K Jeff Wilkins broke the team record for consecutive made PAT's with 171, moving past Bruce Gossett (1965-69). The scoring started off with a 39-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica with 9:37 left in the first half. St. Louis got on the board five minutes later with their first first-quarter touchdown of the season, a five-yard run by Faulk to give the Rams a 7-3 lead with 4:34 left in the first quarter after their 9-play, 91-yard drive. Gramatica connected on a 47-yarder on the first play of the second quarter after a 10-play, 44-yard drive by the Buccaneers. After the first of four Warner interceptions, Tampa Bay went 56 yards in six plays with a 9-yard touchdown pass from Johnson to TE Rickey Dudley to give the Bucs the lead back, 13-7. Faulk left the game in the second quarter with a strain in his neck and did not return. Warner was intercepted shortly after the fourth quarter began, leading to a 1-yard scoring run by RB Mike Alstott to give the Bucs a 19-7 lead. Rams' rookie RB Lamar Gordon made his offensive debut on the ensuing drive, accounting for 46 yards on five touches, including his 21-yard jaunt to the end zone to narrow the margin to 19-14, Tampa Bay still holding the edge. The Rams got the ball back after a punt by Buccaneers P Tom Tupa, but their luck ran out as Warner was intercepted by Tampa Bay LB Derrick Brooks who ran 39 yards for a touchdown and the final margin.

Edward Jones Dome | October 13, 2002 | Indoors, 72 degrees

The Rams won their first game of the season, beating the previously undefeated Oakland Raiders 28-13. The game marked the NFL debut of QB Marc Bulger, who completed 14 of 21 passes for 186 yards and three touchdowns for a passer rating of 134.1, and rushed for one score. RB Marshall Faulk gained a season-high 158 yards rushing, his 31st career 100-yard rushing game, 17th as a Ram. Faulk also moved to 15th on the NFL's career list of rushing yards, passing Hall of Famer Joe Perry (9,723). On the first play of the game, Oakland QB Rich Gannon completed a 53-yard pass to WR Jerry Rice, and three plays later the Raiders went for it on fourth down, a play the St. Louis defense thwarted. The Rams proceeded to go 97 yards in 9 plays in 5:30 in a drive that culminated in a seven-yard touchdown pass from Bulger to WR Isaac Bruce. It was Bruce's 58th career touchdown, tying him with Hall of Fame RB Eric Dickerson for second on the Rams all-time touchdown list. With 10:56 left before halftime, WR Terrence Wilkins broke loose for a 55-yard punt return, setting up a Bulger touchdown pass on the next play, when he hit WR Torry Holt for a 13-yard strike in the end zone, making the score 14-0. Oakland then went 55 yards in 11 plays in 5:19 for a 43-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. With 8:01 left in the third quarter, Janikowski connected on a 32-yarder after a 12-play, 60-yard drive, to narrow the Raiders' margin to 14-6. Janikowski missed a 35-yarder to end the third quarter, and five plays and 75 yards later, Bulger connected with Faulk for a 10-yard score, increasing St. Louis' lead to 21-6 with 13:49 left in the game. On the ensuing Raiders' drive, DT Damione Lewis batted a pass by Gannon into the arms of DE Grant Wistrom for an interception. On the next play Faulk ran 32 yards down to the one-yard line, setting up a one-yard touchdown run by Bulger for the 28-6 advantage. Oakland drove 91 yards in nine plays, a 3:10 drive that led to the Raiders' first touchdown of the day, a two-yard pass from Gannon to RB Terry Kirby for the final margin.

Game 10 — RAMS 21, Chicago Bears 16

Edward Jones Dome | November 18, 2002 | Indoors, 72 degrees

The Rams won their fifth game in a row to improve their record to 5-5, becoming the second team in NFL history to win five games straight after losing five in a row to start the season (2001 Washington Redskins). WR Isaac Bruce (6-141) became the second player in team history with 9,000 receiving yards, the other is Rams wide receivers coach Henry Ellard (9,761 yards). It was his 31st career 100-yard receiving game, and the first time he had back-to-back 100-yard receiving games for since 10/22/00 (8-129-2 @ Kansas City) and 10/29/00 (8-129-0 @ San Francisco). QB Marc Bulger completed 21 of 35 passes for 347 yards and two touchdowns with one interception, his second consecutive 300+ yard passing game and second in five career starts. TE Ernie Conwell scored his second career rushing touchdown (the other was on a two-yard run vs. New Orleans 10/28/01) a one-yard run in the first quarter. Conwell made two receptions for 69 yards (second highest total of career), including a career-long 52-yard reception in the first quarter. RB Lamar Gordon scored his second career receiving touchdown on a 22-yard reception from Bulger in the second quarter. The scoring started with 10:10 left in the first quarter on the first drive of the game, as the Rams took 10 plays to move the ball 65 yards in 4:55 that ended in Conwell's one-yard touchdown run. On the drive Bulger completed three of five passes for 60 yards, including two in a row to Bruce for 21 and 22 yards. Chicago got on the board next on the second play of the second quarter as K Paul Edinger booted a 37-yard field goal with 14:14 to go, finishing a 13-play, 66-yard, 6:59 drive. Edinger got the Bears more points with 6;20 before halftime as he kicked a 48-yarder to narrow the margin to 7-6. The Rams executed their two-minute offense to perfection, driving 81 yards in four plays, taking 0:46 off the clock as Bulger connected with Gordon for that 22-yard touchdown strike to extend the Rams lead to 14-6 going into halftime. On the Bears' first drive of the second half, they marched 64 yards in 11 plays in 5:37 to get RB Anthony Thomas into the end zone on a 13-yard run to narrow St. Louis' margin to 14-13. With 9:08 left in the game, Bulger hit WR Ricky Proehl for an eight-yard score after a 10-play, 82-yard, 5:14 drive. Bulger again was the highlight of the drive as he connected on six of eight passes for 79 yards, including the touchdown and a three-yard pass to himself after a batted ball. The score was 21-13 before Edinger kicked a 50-yard field goal with 3:53 left in the game after a six-play, 32-yard, 3:04 drive, for the final margin.

Game 11 — Washington Redskins 20, RAMS 17

FedExField | November 24, 2002 | Sunny, 55 degrees

The Rams lost their first game in their last six 20-17 to the Washington Redskins, bringing their record to 5-6. With a 30-yard reception in the first quarter, WR Isaac Bruce became the Rams all-time leading receiver with 594 receptions, passing Rams receivers coach Henry Ellard who had 593 catches. QB Kurt Warner threw his 100th career touchdown pass and moved into sole possession of fourth place on the Rams all-time list of touchdown passers when he completed a four-yard scoring pass to WR Troy Edwards in the first quarter, moving him past Hall of Famer Bob Waterfield (99). Warner (50 games) tied for the fifth fastest player in NFL history to throw 100 touchdown passes, tying Brett Favre. Warner completed his first 15 passes of the game, tying the third best mark in Rams history, with Tony Banks vs. New York Jets 10/11/98. The Rams got on the board first when Warner hit WR Troy Edwards for the four-yard strike with 6:00 left in the first quarter to give St. Louis a 7-0 lead. Warner was five for five on that drive for 51 yards, including the touchdown pass to Edwards, his first as Ram, and two passes for 34 yards to Bruce. After a 13-play, 57-yard, 7:36 drive, K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 30-yard field goal to extend the Rams lead to 10-0 with 10:46 left in the second quarter. The Redskins broke the shutout with 3:31 as RB Stephen Davis ran one yard for a touchdown, making the score 10-7. Davis got the Redskins their first lead of the game with 10:14 left in the third quarter as he ran three yards for a touchdown, bringing the score to 14-10. Less than five minutes later Davis scored his third touchdown of the game, a five-yard run, with 6:59 left in the third quarter, but Washington wasn't able to convert the extra point, so the score was 20-10. St. Louis went on a 12-play, 75-yard, 7:34 drive on their first possession of the fourth quarter, culminating with a five-yard strike from Warner to WR Ricky Proehl to narrow the deficit to 20-17. The Rams got the ball back with 3:28 left in the game, but after getting down to the Washington six-yard line, Warner fumbled after being sacked by LB LaVar Arrington with DT Daryl Gardener recovering the ball with :17 left in the game for the final margin.

Game 14 — RAMS 30, Arizona Cardinals 28

Edward Jones Dome | December 15, 2002 | Indoors, 72 degrees

The Rams improved their record to 6-8 by defeating the Arizona Cardinals 30-28. QB Marc Bulger recorded his third career 300-yard passing game, completing 24 of 40 passes for 319 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions. Bulger recorded his second fourth quarter comeback victory in six starts and is 6-0 in his first six NFL starts. RB Marshall Faulk became the fourth player in Rams history to gain 5,000 rushing yards. Faulk is the second player in NFL history to rush for at least 5,000 yards with two different teams, joining RB Eric Dickerson (Rams, Indianapolis Colts). WR Torry Holt posted his third consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season and recorded his 17th career 100-yard receiving game, fourth this season, making seven catches for 141 yards and one touchdown. The scoring started with 11:57 left in the first quarter when Wilkins hit a 26-yard field goal after a six-play, 42-yard, 1:27 drive. With 13:43 left in the first half, CB Dre' Bly returned a punt by P Scott Player 78 yards for a touchdown, giving the Rams a 10-0 lead. It was the Rams first punt return for a touchdown since WR Az-Zahir Hakim recorded an 86-yard return for a score vs. Denver (9/4/00). With 6:11 left in the second quarter, RB Marcel Shipp capped off a six-play, 50-yard, 3:19 drive by Arizona to narrow the margin, 10-7. With 1:07 left in the first half Bulger connected with WR Troy Edwards for a four-yard strike on a drive where Bulger was five of seven for 63 yards, including the touchdown. After a sack, forced fumble, and fumble recovery on the same play by DE Leonard Little on QB Jake Plummer on the ensuing Arizona drive, the Rams scored with seven seconds left in the half on a three-yard strike from Bulger to Holt after a four-play, 32-yard, 0:37 drive to give the Rams a 24-7 lead going into halftime. The Cardinals got on board next with 11:49 left in the third quarter on a screen pass from Plummer to Shipp that went for 80 yards. Arizona struck again with 5:14 to go in the third quarter as Shipp ran left for a one-yard touchdown to narrow the margin to 24-21. After a seven-play, 49-yard, 3:13 drive by St. Louis, Wilkins booted a 37-yard field goal to extend their lead to 27-21 with 11:37 left in the game. The Cardinals answered as Plummer hit TE Steve Bush with a one-yard touchdown pass with 7:51 to go. The Rams got the ball back and went on top with 0:23 left in the game as Wilkins hit a 26-yard game-winning field goal, the fifth of his career, to make the score 30-28. CB Travis Fisher intercepted a Plummer pass with 0:03 left in to seal the victory.

Game 15 — Seattle Seahawks 30, RAMS 10

Seahawks Stadium | December 22, 2002 | Cloudy, 45 degrees

The Rams lost 30-10 to the Seattle Seahawks to see their record drop to 6-9. WR Isaac Bruce posted his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season, tying wide receivers coach Henry Ellard for the team record. It was Bruce's sixth 1,000-yard season of his nine-year career, extending his team record. RB Marshall Faulk moved to seventh on the NFL's career list of yards from scrimmage, passing Hall of Famer Tony Dorsett (16,293). Faulk moved into 11th place on the NFL's career list of all-purpose yards, surpassing Dorsett (16,326). WR Torry Holt made the 300th reception of his career on a 16-yard catch in the fourth quarter. Holt also gained over 5,000 receiving yards in his career on the catch. On the Rams' first drive of the game, QB Marc Bulger completed his first pass attempt, 11 yards to Holt, before getting sacked and injured on the next play, not returning to the game due to a back injury, as QB Jamie Martin replaced him. The scoring started with 8:49 left in the first quarter after the Seahawks completed a seven-play, 30-yard, 2:46 drive with a 31-yard field goal by K Rian Lindell. Lindell extended the Seahawks lead with 12:16 left in the second quarter on a 36-yard field goal after a 14-play, 69-yard drive. On the ensuing drive, the Rams went 44 yards in 13 plays, in 6:29, leading to a 45-yard field goal by K Jeff Wilkins, making the score 6-3. The Seahawks answered immediately by taking only four plays to go 75 yards (in 2:00) to cap off the drive with a one-yard run for a touchdown by RB Shaun Alexander to extend Seattle's lead to 13-3. Seattle extended their lead with 9:02 left in the third quarter as Alexander ran for another one-yard score, following a four-play, 28-yard drive, to make the score 20-3. The Rams answered with a touchdown of their own as Martin hit Holt for a five-yard strike with 3:23 left in the third quarter to shrink Seattle's advantage to 20-10. On the ensuing drive the Seahawks drove 73 yards in nine plays to end up with a 22-yard field goal by Lindell, making the score 23-10. Seattle put the final points up with 11:23 left in the game as QB Matt Hasselbeck hit WR Darrell Jackson with a 38-yard touchdown pass for the final margin.

Game 16 — RAMS 31, San Francisco 49ers 20

Edward Jones Dome | December 30, 2002 | Indoors, 72 degrees

The Rams beat the San Francisco 49ers 31-20 behind a 17-point fourth quarter comeback to improve their record to 7-9 to finish the season. The 28 points in the fourth quarter tied a team record (the other was vs. Chicago 10/26/52). It was the third fourth quarter come-from-behind victory for the Rams this season. The 49ers started the game with an NFL season-long 12:07 drive, going 81 yards in 20 plays and finishing with a 19-yard field goal by K Jeff Chandler. QB Scott Covington started the game for the Rams, but gave way to QB Jamie Martin early in the first quarter. San Francisco got on the board next with 10:39 left in the second quarter after a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Tim Rattay to WR Tai Streets. Rattay and Streets struck again with 3:08 left before halftime on a 27-yard scoring play to increase the 49ers lead to 17-0 going into halftime. The Rams were the next to score, as K Jeff Wilkins hit a 39-yard field goal after a 10-play, 32-yard, 4:02 drive. The 49ers started the fourth quarter with another field goal by Chandler, a 44-yarder, with 13:47 left in the game, extending San Francisco's lead to 20-3. St. Louis promptly moved 72 yards in six plays, taking 2:11 off the clock, on a scoring drive ending with a six-yard touchdown pass from Martin to TE Brandon Manumaleuna. The Rams scored again with 7:13 left in the game after a seven-play, 53-yard, 3:14 drive on a 26-yard touchdown pass from Martin to WR Isaac Bruce, to narrow their deficit to 20-17. On the 49ers first play after that touchdown, CB Dre' Bly stripped the ball out of RB Garrison Hearst's hands, forcing the fumble. Bly recovered it and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown, the Rams' first defensive touchdown of the season, giving the Rams their first lead of the game with 7:05 left to go, 24-20. Little forced another fumble on Hearst with 2:58 left in the game, recovered by CB Dexter McCleon, and the Rams went 51 yards in five plays and Martin hit TE Ernie Conwell with a 32-yard touchdown pass with 2:00 to go in the game for the final margin.

RAMS HONORS

Each year, the Rams honor four players with special awards. The players and coaches combine to vote on two of the awards, the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award and the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, while the players vote on the Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award and the Ed Block Courage Award. A description of each award:

Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award
Given to the team's Most Valuable Player. The award was established in 1969 in honor of the former owner of the Rams, Dan Reeves, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967. Reeves owned the Rams from 1941-71 and claimed World Championships in 1945 and 1951. He was the first to integrate football in the modern era with the signing of Woody Strode and Kenny Washington in 1946.

Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award
Given to the team's Rookie of the Year. The award was established following the passing of former owner Carroll Rosenbloom in 1979. Rosenbloom became the owner of the Rams when he orchestrated an unprecedented franchise trade in 1972. Rosenbloom traded the Baltimore Colts to Robert Irsay for the Rams. The Rams won an NFL record seven consecutive NFC West titles from 1973-79 under Rosenbloom's leadership.

Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award
Established in 1990, the award is given to the player who best exemplifies sportsmanship, ethic, and commitment to his teammates. Those traits were displayed by former Rams linebacker Carl Ekern, killed in an automobile accident in 1990. Ekern was a starter for the Rams from 1982-88 and earned an invitation to the Pro Bowl in 1986.

Ed Block Courage Award
Ed Block was the head trainer for the Baltimore Colts for 23 years. When the Ed Block Courage Award was founded in 1978, it honored a Colts player for showing courage on and off the field. In 1984, it became a league-wide award honoring one member from each NFL team. Proceeds from the award and the Ed Block Foundation go to support and provide housing for abused children.

2003 ST. LOUIS RAMS ON RADIO

The St. Louis Rams Radio Network will feature the tandem of Steve Savard and Jack Snow, who will anchor gameday broadcasts on flagship radio station 103.3 KLOU-FM. Malcolm Briggs reports from the sideline to compliment Savard's call of the play-by-play action and expert commentary from Snow.

Savard is the Sports Director for KMOV-TV in St. Louis. Before entering broadcasting he was a two-time all-MIAA linebacker at Northwest Missouri State University. He signed with Dallas as a rookie free agent in 1986 before being released during training camp. The following year Savard spent the season with the Cowboys on injured reserve after suffering a neck injury in the preseason.

Snow enjoyed an 11-year career with the Rams at wide receiver. He ranks fourth in team history in receiving yards (6,012) and fifth in career receptions (340). Snow also had a stint with the Rams in the coaching ranks, coaching receivers in 1982. He was a first-round draft choice in 1965 out of Notre Dame by the Minnesota Vikings before being traded to the Rams.

The Rams Radio-103.3 KLOU gameday broadcast includes a three-hour pregame show and a two-hour postgame show, which includes live locker room interviews with players, and an exclusive "First Word" with Head Coach Mike Martz immediately following each game.

Additional Rams programming on 103.3 KLOU includes The Coach Mike Martz Show and The Jimmy Kennedy Show on Monday nights, as well as The Tyoka Jackson Show on Thursday nights. 103.3 KLOU is St. Louis' home for Superhits of the 60's and 70's. CHAMPIONS ON AND OFF THE FIELD. . .

The St. Louis Rams community outreach team, which includes the St. Louis Rams Foundation, supports programs designed to positively impact youth in the areas of education, literacy, health and recreation. Since moving to St. Louis in 1995, the Rams have contributed more than $3 million in cash, grants, merchandise and tickets to area charities. In addition, the team has joined local organizations to help raise thousands of dollars for area causes. Rams' programs range from awarding game tickets to youth organizations for their work on community projects to addressing diversity issues through school and community education programs and awareness building.

Cornerstone Programs

Community First Youth Ticket Program

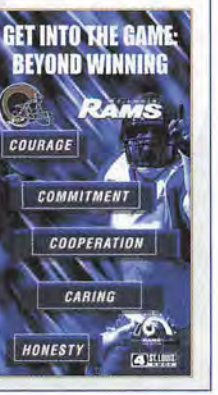
Since 1998, the St. Louis Rams and Rams Foundation have issued a challenge to youth organizations throughout the St. Louis area to earn a seat at a Rams' regular season home game by "putting the community first." This program, which awards tickets for community projects, has generated more than 25,000 hours of community service since its inception and is sponsored by EDS, the leading pure-play global services company with a significant presence in St. Louis. Applications are available in the spring on the Rams' web site.

Diversity Awareness Partnership

An exciting partner program of the Rams is the Diversity Awareness Partnership, an organization promoting the value of difference in the St. Louis region. Beginning as the first professional team to sign an African-American player – even before Jackie Robinson broke the color barrier in Major League Baseball, the Rams have had a long tradition of embracing diversity.

In 2002, the Rams recruited Edward Jones to launch a youth program geared at middle and high school students. Facilitated by ADL's A World of Difference Institute, the effort makes a difference among area youth. More information may be obtained at www.makeadifferencestlouis.org or by calling 314-436-7628.

Get Into the Game



With positive youth development as a priority of the St. Louis Rams community outreach efforts, the St. Louis Rams and the Rams Foundation have joined the CHARACTERplus team of Cooperating School Districts and KMOV Channel 4 to bring area schools the "Get Into the Game" curriculum and video. Knowing the influence that professional athletes have on youngsters, this program encourages students to make positive life choices to achieve their goals.

The "Get Into the Game: Beyond Winning" video features Rams' players including Marshall Faulk, Kurt Warner, Isaac

Bruce, Adam Timmerman, Grant Wistrom, Torry Holt and Aeneas Williams as positive role models discussing courage, commitment, cooperation, caring and honesty. Rams' broadcasters Steve Savard and Jack Snow also are featured. The "Get Into the Game" program was created in 1999 with a grant from the Rams Foundation. In 2000, an All-Pro Team, which recognizes schools for their activities related to the curriculum, was introduced awarding player visits for outstanding initiatives. Since 2000, 30 schools have been awarded player assemblies for their successful projects.

Healthy Kids at Play

The Rams have partnered with St. Louis Children's Hospital to promote wellness and nutrition education in underserved communities.

Emerging Leaders

In 2002, the St. Louis Rams and Rams Foundation initiated a new educational program entitled the St. Louis Rams Emerging Leaders Program. The objective of the program, which is facilitated by the Coro Leadership Center – St. Louis, is to provide St. Louis area high school juniors with an opportunity to understand the daily operations of business and community organizations. During the program, students observe a variety of different occupations, receive specialized training to prepare them for site visits, develop leadership skills important to their future professional lives and build relationships with students from diverse high schools.

St. Louis Rams Emerging Leaders

Literacy Efforts

The Rams partner with area organizations to promote literacy throughout the St. Louis community. In 2002, these organizations included Metropolitan Association of Public Libraries (MAPL), First Book – St. Louis, Literacy Investment for Tomorrow (LIFT – Missouri), the Missouri State Library and A Book In Every Home (Illinois).

As part of their literacy initiatives, each fall, the Rams encourage youth to tackle reading by joining the Rams Reader Team. In 2002, more than 98 local library branches throughout the bi-state area joined with the Rams and Clarkson Eyecare to participate in the program.

The Rams Reader Team targets kids from kindergarten to high school, and encourages them to visit their local library, sign up to be a Rams Reader Team member, and choose a book from the reading list created from suggestions from the St. Louis Rams football players, a cheerleader, head coach Mike Martz and team owner Georgia Frontiere. The poster (right) along with game tickets and a party at Rams Park were among the featured incentives.

Each week during the program Rams players read at local libraries. The Rams Reader Team reading list as well as a list of participating libraries can be accessed on the Rams' web site at www.stlouisrams.com.

St. Louis Public Schools Rams Fitness Team

Since 1998, the Rams and St. Louis Public Schools have partnered to implement a flag football curriculum in all St. Louis Public Schools. The program also includes a Physical Education Teacher of the Year program, physical education training sessions with Rams' personnel and a component on nutrition and lifetime fitness.

Youth Football

The Rams have joined with the NFL to identify opportunities to enhance, promote and recognize positive aspects of football at every level. As part of these efforts, the Ram are involved with the following:

- In 2002 and 2003, the Rams community outreach team joined Coach Martz to help present a clinic for high school football coaches.
- The Rams also host the NFL Coaching Academy for youth football coaches at Rams Park.
- Each week during the high school football season, the Rams salute the efforts of local football coaches with the High School Coach of the Week program which began in 1998. In 2002, the Rams hosted the ten Coach of the Week winners at Rams Park to announce the Coach of the Year, provided tickets to a Rams' home game, and recognized the special coaches in a pre-game ceremony.
- The Rams hosted the high school football division winners at a Rams' home game in 2002.
- With assistance from the Rams and the NFL Flag program, flag football has been added to the CHAMP (Children's Home Activities Meet Program) sports curriculum. CHAMP organizes seasonal sports activities that allows children in emergency placement, residential and day treatment programs to improve social skills, increase self-confidence and develop athletic abilities.

- In 2002 and 2003, in conjunction with VISA, the Rams awarded $50,000 to various programs to support youth football in the region.
